

New service to Gatineau after O-Train Line 1 opens

Bus routes are changing October 6

- ✓ These changes will improve connections to O-Train Line 1 and replace the current service between downtown Ottawa and Gatineau on OC Transpo bus Routes 44, 105, 234 and 293.
- ✓ Seven new bus routes to Gatineau will connect with Line 1, either at Pimisi Station or at Lyon Station.

Routes serving Gatineau

From Lyon

Routes 15 and 17

- ✓ Peak-period weekday service to destinations on Laurier and Maisonneuve with connections to Rideau, Parliament and Lyon Stations
- ✓ Route 15 also provides service between Gatineau and Lyon Station every 30 minutes during the day on weekdays

From Pimisi

Routes 61, 63 and 75

- ✓ Rapid Route peak-period extension from Tunney's Pasture, Bayview and Pimisi Stations
- ✓ During the morning rush hour, some trips continue from Tunney's Pasture directly to Terrasses de la Chaudière in Gatineau, and return from Place du Portage in the afternoon

Route 66

- ✓ Service from Gatineau during the morning rush hour to NDHQ Carling Campus and Kanata North, and return trips to Gatineau in the afternoon

Route 85

- ✓ Frequent all-day bus service to Terrasses de la Chaudière with connections to Line 2 at Carling Station and Line 1 at Pimisi Station
